THE RESURRECTION WHAT A JOKE!

Lesson For April 15, 1979

Background Scripture: 1 Corinthians 15: 12-28.

If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all people most miserable. 1 Cor. 15:19

NO RESURRECTION!

What would death say to us were there no resurrection? That's a dark question! The answer to such a question is worse than death itself. The Corinthians Christians were flirting with a "Gospel" that offered people no hope. No resurrection! Paul is quick to point out the fallacy of their thinking.

Many in today's modern world do not believe in resurrection. Easter Sunday morning will find a host of people doing anything but celebrating the greatest event in history. While millions will rise early Easter morning to celebrate this event at a sunrise service, or climb the steps of some church to pay homage to the Living Christ, vast numbers of people will think to themselves, "What a joke!"

Do you recall the story of Don Quixote? We chuckle at such an idealist. What a joke to think that one man could become a knight and roam the world on a nag, in a suit of armor, in quest of adventure, and crying that he would right all of the world's wrongs. He even thought he would one day be crowned emperor. "What a joke!" some have said.

And then there was Jesus. People have laughed at him too. He came riding into Jerusalem on a lowly donkey. The people lined the streets and threw palm branches before his path. He came with no suit or armor; he did not seek adventure but only to do the will of his heavenly Father. He doesn't right all of the world's wrongs but by his death he takes away the sin of the world. He was crowned with thorns and strung up on a tree to die. Human Flesh was cheap then and now. The Manson family confirms this. Manson says he is what's inside each of u. Maybe he is right, but not if Christ lives within us.

RESURRECTION AFFIRMED

Paul told his Corinthian readers that Christ's resurrection ushered in a bright ray of hope! And if Christ was resurrected, think what that means for those who believe and follow him! Christ translates death into life both abundant and eternal.

His murderers laughed at him while he hung limp on that "gallows." But the moment he died a strange silence fell upon the world. And from his grave he laughed because he had skirted with death and won the victory. He died alright. He died for the little people, the unlovables, for those without hope, without reason for living, for those without a purpose. And when he died, there were no images chiseled into marble, no epitaph hammered into copper. He died at the hands of those who were experts at calculating murder. But now the joke was on them for God had triumphed.

HE RULES ALL

Paul writes, "for he must reign, till he has put all enimies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death." (1Cor. 15:25-26) When Jesus died, people believed that his sun had set for good. His killers believed they had quenched his light by hanging him and burying him in a dark tomb. But his sun set and rose again to tear open the pitch black night of the grave to reveal the dawn of a new day!

Strange, isn't it? The Cross upon which he died ceased to be an implement of death and has become a symbol of life! He laughs at death and claims victory over the world. At the end of the age he will subdue all powers, including death. Those who love God will reap the journey of a continued pilgrimage in the place prepared for us.

The embalmed remains of Lenin lie in a crystal casket in a tomb in Red Square in Moscow. On his casket it says, "He was the greatest leader of all peoples. of all countries, of all times. He was the Lord of the new humanity. He was the saviour of the world."

All is in the past tense for Lenin. How triumphant, by contrast, are the victory words of Christ: "I am he that is alive....I am alive for evermore. Be of good cheer, I have overcome the world."
